

Updates From the Office of Elementary and Secondary Education Data Team

Sarah Newman
June 14, 2017

ESSA–Aligned Data Collections and CSPR

- ▶ The Every Student Succeeds Act required OESE to make changes to existing data collections and to create new data collections.
 - The SY2016–17, SY2017–18, and SY2018–19 EDFacts information collection is awaiting approval by OMB.
 - In general, new and revised data collections begin in SY2017–18.
-

ESSA–Aligned Data Collections and CSPR

(continued)

- ▶ ESSA maintains the Department’s consolidated reporting requirement in Section 8303.
- ▶ OESE is in the process of developing a revised CSPR, which will align to the requirements of ESSA.
 - Considering move to one part versus the current two parts
 - Identifying opportunities to streamline the CSPR collection and review process in order to reduce burden

OESE Initiatives

- ▶ Data-driven decision making
 - Using data to assess the technical assistance needs of grantees
 - Using data to improve federal program management
 - Improving and enhancing ED Data Express, a data website managed by OESE that puts data in the hands of the public (<https://eddataexpress.ed.gov/>)